Request for Direct Deposit

Erase

If you have an account at a financial institution with an establishment in Canada, you can complete this form to have us deposit the following directly into your account:

- your income tax refund and any other tax-related payments to which you are or may be entitled;
- shelter allowance payments.

You can also use this form to update your banking information.

You must be registered for direct deposit to receive the following:

- the solidarity tax credit;
- advance payments of the tax credit for home-support services for seniors;
- advance payments of the tax credit for childcare expenses;
- advance payments of any tax credits respecting the work premium (work premium, adapted work premium or supplement to the work premium [for former recipients of social assistance or financial assistance under the Aim for Employment program]);
- an advance payment of the tax credit for the treatment of infertility;
- advance payments of the tax credit for caregivers.

How to request direct deposit

(or notify us of any changes to your information)

You can use this form to request direct deposit or to change your direct deposit information. You can also register for direct deposit online on our website at revenuquebec.ca.

Instructions on how to complete this form

On the front of a cheque from an account in your name at a financial institution with an establishment in Canada (see the example opposite), write "VOID" along with your name and social insurance number. Next, write your phone number on the detachable slip below, sign and date the slip, and send it and the void cheque to us using the return envelope.

If you are unable to supply a void cheque, fully complete the detachable portion below and send it to us in the return envelope. To complete the section about the financial institution, contact your financial institution. Be sure to enter all the digits of the branch number (including any initial zeroes), the financial institution number and your account number.

If you do not have a return envelope, send the detachable portion and void cheque (if applicable) to the following address: C. P. 3000, succursale Place-Desjardins, Montréal (Québec) H5B 1A4.

Cancelling your registration for direct deposit

Your registration for direct deposit will remain in effect until you cancel it. You can cancel your registration in writing or by calling 1 800 267-6299.

Protection of confidential information

In compliance with the Tax Administration Act and the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information, we protect your information. The only Revenu Québec employees who can access your information are those who are duly authorized and who need access as part of their work. We can use the information for the purposes of administering the laws and social programs for which we are responsible.

We can also use the information to conduct studies, research and surveys, and to compile statistics.

Subject to the restrictions provided for in the above-mentioned laws, we can communicate your information to a government department or agency or to a third party for specific purposes without your consent, where the information is required to administer laws or joint programs for which the department, agency or party is responsible.

Failure to provide information can have repercussions on your file and result in the refusal of your request. You can, under certain conditions, consult, obtain a copy of or correct your information.

For more information, consult the guide to the income tax return (TP-1.G-V) or visit our website at revenuquebec.ca.
